HOLDS O'CONNOR SANE

JUSTICE SALINGER RULES IN FAVOR OF PROMINENT FORT DODGE ATTORNEY.

CASE HELD OPEN FOR FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

Salinger Finds O'Connor at One Time Was Under Delusion as to His Wife But Has Now Overcome His Hallucination—Given Freedom Except on One Condition.

Special to Times-Republican.

Carroll, Dec. 6.—Judge B. I. Salinger, of the supreme court of Iowa, has issued the following order regarding the application for a writ of habeas corpus filed by Maurice O'Connor, prominent attorney of Fort Dodge:

"Maurice O'Connor, plaintiff, against George H. Bradshaw and the state of Iowa, defendants:

"The plaintiff appearing by Bennett, Bliss and Witmer and F. H. Helsell, defendants by E. E. Cavanaugh, county attorney, and T. A. Chesire, special counsel.

"This matter comes on for judgment on this fourth day of December, 1916. The court having heard the evidence and the arguments of counsel, and being fully advised in the premises, thus finds:

"First—The evidence does not satisfy the court that the plaintiff is now of unsound mind.

"Second—The court affirmatively finds that the plaintiff is now of sound mind, with this exception: evidence was introduced that at one time he was under a delusion respecting his wife and he now testifies that he no longer labors under that delusion. The court finds that there was such a delusion but is not satisfied that the plaintiff has altogether disabused himself of the same.

"Therefore, it is now held, ordered and adjudged, as follows:

"This cause is held by this court for final order and for the purpose of such final order is held open indefinitely. Pending judgment, the plaintiff is required to all rights of a person of sound mind, including the right to control and dispose of his property subject to no restraint except that he is to execute a bond in the sum of $5,000 to be approved by the clerk of the district court of Iowa in and for Webster county, conditioned that the plaintiff shall appear before me for final order or other proceedings herein on being notified thus to appear.

"It is further ordered, that any accusation of insanity that may hereafter be made, if any, shall be treated as supplemental to this proceedings, now and still pending, and shall be brought to the court and the board of commission on insanity for said county of Webster shall so long as this proceeding is pending in this court, entertain no such application, except to refer the same to this court. To all of which the defendant excepts.
